

Reimbursement of expenses for PhD students identified as PDI members.

Direction of Research

Please note that you can receive a financial support for a maximum of 3 years.

- 1) Moving abroad (mobility for research): Each PhD student can ask for the refund of some travel costs related to the PhD during the period of membership.

To benefit from this refund, please fill in, sign the application form for refund and provide us with the documentation mentioned on the form.

Maximum refund for the whole period: 330€ (inside Europe) or 480€ (Outside Europe)

- 2) Summer or Winter Schools: Regarding the participation to a Summer or Winter School, each PDI member can demand a partial refund of the registration fees for the participation at two Schools during the whole period.

To benefit from this refund, please fill in the Application form for Refund and provide us with the documentation mentioned on the form.

Maximum annual refund: 300€

Maximum refunding for the whole period: 600€ for 2 Summer or Winter Schools

It can also include the participation to conferences or symposiums upon proof of an active participation (posters presentation for example). The proof of an active participation should be provided.

- 3) Accommodation on the 2nd Research site: A part of the accommodation fees/rent during the research trip of the PDI member abroad can be reimbursed.

To benefit from this refund, please fill in the Application form for Refund and provide us with the documentation mentioned on the form.

Maximum reimbursement: 100€/month during a maximum of 18 months.

Collège doctoral -
Université de Strasbourg

Pôle International

Virginie HERBASCH
herbasch@unistra.fr